

FAMILY PROMISE MINISTRY

The Family Promise Ministry Committee met November 5, 2009 at 6:00 p.m.

Pastor John Klatt, Bob Bueller, Ron Wirth, Janet Render, Lori Aliaverie, Rick Lipka, Nancy Wright, Maureen Gensler and Sandy Gordon were present.

Lori Aliaverie stepped down from her position as Lead Coordinator and Janet Hender accepted the position.

St. John's Ev. Lutheran Church Ministries were reviewed and each member in attendance choose the committees they would be contacting regarding Family Promise Ministry.

Pastor John Klatt agreed to discuss Family Promise Ministry when he meets with the group of church leaders in West Seneca.

Discussion took place regarding meeting with all the churches in our area to explain Family Promise Ministry to see if they will be willing to support St. John's as volunteers. We set the date for this gathering for January 24, time to be established at a later date.

Bob Bueller announced they have 10 out of the 13 churches required to restart the program.

Sandy Gordon and Janet Hender agreed to go to the Steering Committee (committee to get program back into operation) with Bob Bueller November 19th at 7:00 p.m. at Grace Lutheran church.

Janet Hender and Sandy Gordon's meeting with Penny Paschka at Grace Lutheran church was discussed. Grace Lutheran church will be happy to assist St John's in any area needed and Penny welcomed us to volunteer when they have the homeless at their church.

Lori Aliaverie explained the background of some of the homeless and the reasons why they become homeless.

The next Family Promise Ministry meeting was set for December 9, 2009 at 7:00 p.m.

This meeting was adjourned at 7:00 p.m.
